

2020 Summer Listening Calendar

palomapiano.com - piano parents.net

This is year number four for the Summer Listening Calendar Challenge! Listening to great music is crucial to the development of musicianship.

There are listening suggestions for each day June 1 through August 31. The music selected is an eclectic mix of classical music and jazz. Listening to the sophisticated rhythm and harmony of these genres helps students to grow as musicians.

You can find performances of each listening suggestion at pianoparents.net. I have carefully hand selected performances of the highest quality to make it easy for students and families to listen daily.

Piano Teachers,

Please visit palomapiano.com for music and resources that you can use with your students.

I also have 2 books

“The Happiest Piano Teacher in Town, Empowering Teachers to Inspire Students”

And

“The Ultimate Preschool Piano Activities Book”

Both can be found at amazon.com

I hope you all will enjoy the Summer Listening Calendar Challenge.
