

Review a song!

2. Play the song with your hands crossed
3. Memorize one line of the song and then play it without the music
4. Play the song on the lowest notes of the piano
5. Play the song on the highest notes of the piano
6. Flat the 3rd and 6th to make the song minor
7. Play the entire song staccato
8. Start with the last measure and play the song in backwards order
9. Play the song standing up
10. Play the RH really high, and the LH really low
11. Roll one die again, only use that finger number for the whole song.
12. Play the song as fast as you possibly can!

Learn a new song!

2. Circle all of the sharps and flats that come from the key signature
3. Circle all of the dynamics in red
4. Roll the dice again, play that measure 5 times
5. Find the lowest and highest notes in the song, circle and write the names of the notes.
6. Find 3 different intervals, circle and name them with blue.
7. Write the name of the key, the tonic, and dominant notes.
8. Count all of the times you play the tonic note on the LH
9. Clap and count the first 2 lines
10. Write in the counts for the first 2 lines
11. Learn the first measure and the last measure
12. Learn the last line of the song